

MODERN LUXURY

Brides

CHICAGO SOCIAL

FASHIONABLY YOURS

GLAM GOWNS!

THE LATEST IN ALLURING LOOKS FROM VERA WANG, CAROLINA HERRERA, ALBERTA FERRETTI AND MORE!

Tabletop Finery Finds a Welcome Reception

CHIC & SWEET: Cakes in Sophisticated Shades of Gray

Make it Yours: Wall Flowers in Full Bloom

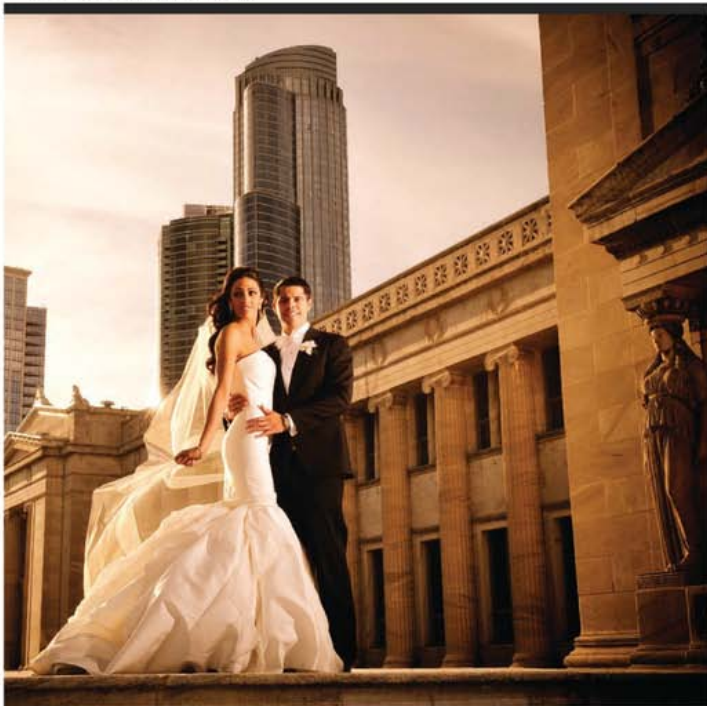

THE RUNWAY REPORT: Haute Trends
Straight From the Catwalk

PLUS

*AISLE TO ISLES: A Blissful Island-Hopping
Honeymoon in the South Pacific*

60

Unforgettable
Chicago Couples!

Kara paired her Carolina Herrera gown from Ultimate Bride with Jenny Packham jewelry, and Frank selected a tuxedo by Giorgio Armani.

Late-night snacks of mini carne asada tacos by Blue Plate

The bride's sparkling shoes were by Jimmy Choo.

Oak Mill Bakery's cake featured three layers of different flavors.

Kehoe Designs crafted arrangements in keeping with the color scheme.

The Field Museum dressed by Kehoe Designs

KARA BLASQUEZ &
FRANK CALLERO

September 14, 2013
The Field Museum
Photos by Jai Girard Photography

THE COUPLE Kara, a publicist, and Frank, an attorney, met while both students at the University of San Diego. They decided to wed at the same church where the groom's parents and grandparents had been married.

THE DETAILS Ashley Crawford of SQN Events coordinated the elegant black-and-white-themed affair and the couple's 26-person wedding party. Florals by Kehoe Designs featured lush, white arrangements of roses, orchids, lilies and hydrangeas.

THE PARTY The party kicked off with a choreographed Harlem Shake dance routine and ended with guests grabbing late-night bites, like mini Chicago-style hot dogs and tacos courtesy of Blue Plate, before heading off to The Gage for the afterparty. —Phoebe Wahl